

At-Large National Convention Delegate/Alternate – Application for Consideration

If you are interested in being considered to represent Texas at the National Convention as either a delegate or alternate, please complete this form. Applications are due back to the Republican Party of Texas no later than May 15, 2024. Please email the completed application to forms@texasgop.org

The National Nominations Committee will meet on Thursday, May 24, 2024. The members of the committee will select 44 delegates and 44 alternates to represent Texas at the Republican National Convention. Copies of your application will be distributed to the members of the National Nominations Committee for consideration. While you are not obligated to complete this form for consideration, doing so will allow the members of the committee to have information about you which will help them to make an informed decision.

Limit your information to the space provided on this application. Additional pages will not be distributed by the Republican Party of Texas to the members of the committee. If you want to distribute additional material, you may do so, but at your own expense (plan on bringing at least 40 copies for committee use).

Why should you be selected as a delegate to the National Convention?:

If you are not selected as a delegate, would you still like to be considered to fill an alternate position (choose one)? Y or N

I understand that being a delegate/alternate to the National Convention is a large financial responsibility. I am responsible for the cost of the hotel room, meals, and travel expenses to and from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. I understand these costs may total or exceed $5,000.

Republican Party of Texas – General Rules; Section 10. Pledge of Delegates and Alternates.

- a. Commitment to Candidate: By assenting to nomination on a Presidential candidate's slate, each delegate and alternate representing a Presidential candidate becomes pledged to the Presidential candidate on whose slate the delegate and alternate is nominated in accordance with Subsection b of this section.
- b. Length of Commitment: A person who is elected as a delegate or alternate to the National Convention on the slate of a Presidential candidate by the State Convention to represent that particular Presidential candidate at the National Convention and who does not resign from the position is pledged to support that Presidential candidate at the National Convention until the candidate is nominated or until the delegate or alternate is released from the pledges as follows:
  1. First Nomination Convention Ballot: A delegate or alternate shall be released from the pledge only in the event of death, withdrawal, or by decision of the candidate. For the first ballot taken at the National Convention to determine the nominee of the Republican Party for the office of President of the United States, the totals of the votes of the members of the Texas delegation shall be announced as assigned in accordance with these Rules. No poll of the members of the delegation, except those delegates who are uncommitted, shall be taken for the announcement of the vote.
  2. Second Nominating Convention Ballot: A delegate or alternate shall be released from the pledge if the candidate has failed to receive twenty percent (20%) or more of the total vote cast on the preceding ballot; or by the decision of the candidate;
  3. Third and Subsequent Nominating Convention Ballots: All delegates and alternates are released from any pledge.
- c. Uncommitted Delegates: Uncommitted delegates and alternates may vote as they choose on all questions and candidates presented at the National Convention.

I have read the above Rule and understand that if I am selected as a delegate/alternate, I will be bound to the Presidential candidate I was selected to represent.
